This belief was still being used as a basis for shirking their vocational responsibilities. The Fault is-Up-to-Them Objection The first part is an objection against the supposed egalitarian view that people who are responsible for their own terrible situation should be left alone with their problems, no matter what happens to. Neville in Western Australia and Cecil Cook in the Northern Territory, their careers as administrators nonetheless leave little to admire. Your challenges, if you let them, will become your greatest allies.
